

Introduction to Resilience #7

Write a song, poem, or rap about a family member – past or present – who has been an example of resilience to you. Describe with your words what resilience looks like through what they have accomplished. Include how you feel about it!

