

Street Resilience #11

Think about a time you've been discriminated against, or a time when someone you know experienced discrimination.

What feelings and emotions did that cause?

Drawing on these feelings and emotions, write a short story, song, rap, or poem about the situation.

