

Street Resilience #12

Complacency means you have stopped caring about where you are in life and are “settling” on your current state. Complacency can kill Street Resilience.

What is an area of your life where you're complacent?

