

Street Resilience #5

Have you ever had to face your fears? Draw a picture of something that you have feared in the past and how you could respond to it in a productive way in the future.

Lined writing area for drawing and text.

