

Art Project

Draw a picture of your own Reality Ride. Label the things that cause you to crash. Place a star or a stick figure marking where you are on the ride.

A large, empty rectangular box intended for drawing. The box has a thin black border. The right and bottom edges of the box are decorated with a series of small, evenly spaced black dots, suggesting a track or a path.