

Hats are sometimes used as part of a uniform and can be a distinguishing mark of certain careers. We say that someone who does many different things "wears many hats" and when we want to thank or congratulate someone we say, "Hats off to you." Think of someone that can help you "plug in." Design a hat for that individual. It can be functional or honorary. Explain why you designed the hat the way you did.

Get Plugged In Art Activity