

Art Activity

Create a collage, symbol, or picture that will remind you to always jump back up.

Use the space below for developing ideas and create your picture on the next page. Tear out your picture and place it in a location where you will see it every day (like your bathroom mirror.) Practice visualizing it in different situations.

