

Journal Response 2: Motivation Formula

What is something that is a challenge for you? How can you use that challenge as motivation to try harder?

A large area of the page is filled with horizontal lines for writing. The lines are arranged in a standard notebook format, with a solid top line, a dashed midline, and a solid bottom line for each row. There are 20 such rows available for the student to write their response.