

Journal Response 9: Motivation Formula

List at least 5 things that interest you. Pick one and write why it interests you and what more you could learn about or do with this interest. Tell how you could use that interest to help others.

A large area of the page is filled with horizontal lines for writing. The lines are spaced evenly and extend across the width of the page, providing a template for the student's response.