

Observation Activity

Observe those around you (friends, classmates, family members) to see if you can identify someone that is in the "flood zone."

Do you know someone that is in the flood zone?

What can you learn from them?

How does observing their situation motivate you?

Do you know anyone that used to be in the flood zone?

How did they get out?

What can you learn from them?