

Plugging-in Activity

Do one of the following:

Interview a parent, teacher, or other adult and ask them who has been the greatest influence in their life, and why?

Write a letter of appreciation to someone who has had a positive influence in your life. You can use the next page as a piece of stationary.

Turn your passion outward - Share your passion with another person. Teach them what you know about your passion. Tell them why you like a certain song or band. If possible, demonstrate the subject of your passion, like skateboarding.
